exposures

Your exhibits demand great photography! Choose Exposures to capture them in their best light. We've been photographing architecture and interiors since 1983, and draw upon this experience to create award-winning photographs for your visual marketing. There's no need to settle for mediocre photography. Get better imagery from Exposures, Ltd. We've got you covered with photographers in over 35 convention cities - all the majors and some smaller ones too. Choose the service that works best for your marketing use - either our ARCHITECTURAL or STANDARD views.

AWARD WINNING
EXHIBIT PHOTOGRAPHY

ARCHITECTURAL EXHIBIT VIEWS

When your best demands our best - Ideal for an exhibit builder's marketing, contest entries and office walls. After the show has cleared for the day, our photographers use their skills honed by years of experience photographing the built environment. Applying their artistry to coax the most eye-pleasing perspectives of your exhibits, we use specialized lenses and add additional lighting as needed. We then use advanced post-production methods to create these exceptional images. Once you arrange for the booth to be powered up and clean, we'll take it from there. Travel fees are additional, but we'll share them between our customers. (Some shows may require that EAC paperwork be submitted on behalf of the exhibitor.)

STANDARD EXHIBIT VIEWS

When budgets are tight and you still need great images, rest assured that Exposures produces images to best capture your designs. Photographing before the show opens, or maybe even after the show closes for the day, we'll capture the images that feature the exhibit design and branding - adding a bit of stylizing to bring out its best. Order empty views to show the design; add people to show function and activity or get a shot of the team.
